MISSIONARY UPDATE: (PASTOR'S NOTE:
For security reasons, we are asked not to share the names of our missionaries working in predominantly Muslim countries and communities. The following news release is a few weeks old, but still relevant to current news.)

Dear Liberty Wesleyan Church, Please be praying for my dear friend (name withheld) and his family. He and his wife lost 9 nieces and nephews in the deadly earthquakes that hit southern Turkiye and northern Syria. Many of their nieces and nephews were our kids' ages. They have 4 more family members in critical condition in the hospital. It is sobering and heartbreaking, to say the least. I spent the afternoon with them and many other friends and mourners who came by. My prayer is that God will meet them in their time of pain and that they will have space to grieve this tragedy. I realize every culture, religion, and person mourns differently, but I pray that they will feel the Holy Spirit comfort them these days. Please pray with me. (Missionaries names withheld by request).

CONGRATULATIONS: Our congratulations are extended to Daniel Grimm on accepting a scholarship to play football at Guilford College next fall following graduation from McMichael High School, in Madison. Daniel is one of the high school teens attending our Liberty Wesleyan Youth every week. He has been an outstanding offensive and defensive lineman at McMichael, and helped lead the team to an NCHSAA state playoff spot this season. Two years ago, he suffered a severe injury that left him with two broken legs. His recovery story was featured in the March 6, ROCKINGHAMNOW.COM. Daniel's football coach at McMichael High School, Tony McCants, is quoted in the article, "I can't speak highly enough about how good of a kid he is – he overcame a lot of obstacles and I think that is something our kids see is that no matter what cards you are dealt in life, you can overcome them. He's a good testament to that." We're proud of you, Daniel!
